Membership and Fees Schedule

New Member dues - $100 and $55 initiation fee - ($155 total)
Annual Membership dues - $100 (Due on or before July 1)

NOTICE: When renewing for their second year, new members must provide a signed work card with their renewal form to avoid being charged an administrative fee of $55. It is the new member's responsibility to get a signed card from the person in charge of the work party, or informed club officer after putting in the hours.

Senior and Spouse Membership dues - $50

Junior Membership (17 and under) - $15

Life Members - No Dues

All applicants must be current members of the NRA, and NRA memberships secured through the Club are $25.

All new members are accepted as Associate Members, and can apply for Charter Membership after one year and participation in Club activities.

All new applicants must read and sign the club Safety Rules forms, and attend an introductory safety seminar.

All new applicants must come before a Board of Directors Meeting (last Monday of the month) to have their application forwarded, read and voted upon at two regular membership meetings (first Monday of each month).

For additional information, please call the Club at 978-374-8923.
